

Monday 29th June 2020

Poetry reading and handwriting

Practise your joins by copying the chart.

Write out the poem in your best joined handwriting

Swiftly cutting through the water,
Falling spray on either side,
Coyly dipping,
Rising, skipping,
Borne along by wind and tide,
Merrily my boat doth glide.

- What type of boat do you think the poem is describing?
- Find three verbs which describe the movement of the boat through the water.