

Tuesday 16th June 2020

English

Hello Year 5, it's Miss Hodgson here. I hope you are all well and safe. Today we are looking at relative clauses. Email your work over to WDV.Year5@oasiswoodview.org if you'd like some feedback.

Relative Clause
A relative clause is a special type of subordinate clause which adds extra information to another noun or clause.

- James, who never does his homework, is very lazy.
[the extra clause tells us more about James]
- All the chocolate pudding was gone by the time I got in to lunch, which really annoyed me.
[this refers to the whole previous clause about chocolate pudding]

1. Create a full sentence by matching a main clause to a relative clause below:

The girl visited London,	who is only three
Jordan caught the ball	where her sister was born.
Lee, _____, started to cry.	that had been thrown into the air.

2. Write 'M' for main clause or 'R' for relative clause in the boxes below:

	M/R
A. she had decided to climb the wall	<input type="checkbox"/>
B. his hat was covered in mud	<input type="checkbox"/>
C. which was always a problem for him	<input type="checkbox"/>
D. where daffodils always grow	<input type="checkbox"/>
E. when he dropped the ball in the park	<input type="checkbox"/>

3. Zach has written a sentence that includes a relative clause below:

The taxi driver, who had not been paid, was quite unhappy on Saturday.

Circle the relative clause Zach has used in his sentence.

4. Create some of your own sentences including a relative clause.