

Your TV Show!

The directors of Woodview TV6 have expressed an interest in your TV show. Now they need a little help in picturing what it will look like.

Draw the opening "scene" of your show so it is possible to see the "set" (background), how many people there will be, where they are and what they will be doing.

Label your scene so we know any set details, what is happening and who is doing what.

