

Calling all artists.

We need you to submit designs for a piece of public art to stand in front of the new HS2 station at Millennium point.

The theme is “Birmingham Now” and should represent an aspect of Birmingham life or its people.

Try to make sure your design is durable and vandal proof.

We will need:

- * drawings of your design from the front and back,
- * actual sizes marked on your design,
- * the material/s you would like your artwork made from.

The budget for this piece will be £50,000.
