My Journey so far ...

Today you are going to create a page for your booklet, where you write about how your time at school has helped you to become the amazing person that you are! Think about key events or memories. These might be visits, times where someone helped you, when you learned something important or met certain people. Each of these things will have changed and shaped you in some little way. Use your memories from yesterday to help remind you, and use the next page as inspiration to help write your journey so far ...
